

The Buried Book: 10 Discussion Questions

1. How did the chapter introductions affect your reading of the story? Did you go back and read them again?
2. Did you find Jasper's experiences to be believable?
3. How do your own childhood experiences compare to those in the story?
4. How has childhood and parenting norms changed since the 1950s?
5. Did you find Jasper's father, Wendell, to be a sympathetic character? Why or Why not?
6. Does Althea deserve forgiveness after what she's done?
7. How did the ending leave you feeling?
8. At what moment did you realize your own parents were flawed people?
9. How do cultural differences between the Native American characters and Jasper's family influence Jasper?
10. Did this book inspire you to investigate Native American struggles further?

Happy Reading!

D.M. Pulley